Peter Fonda... is in negotiations and Donal Logue has joined the cast of the Nicolas Cage starrer "Ghost Rider." Based on a Marvel Comics property, the Columbia Pictures action-adventure film tells the story of Johnny Blaze (Cage), a stunt motorcyclist who saves the world from evil spirits that cross over from beyond. Fonda would play the role of Mephistopheles, and Logue will play Mack, Johnny's chief mechanic and best friend.

"Ghost," which also stars Eva Mendes, Wes Bentley and Sam Elliott, began shooting this week in Australia. Mark Steven Johnson is directing a script by Shane Salerno, which Johnson rewrote. Logue's current projects include "El Centro," a one-hour drama he is attached to star in as well as write and produce. Logue's feature directorial debut, "Tennis Anyone ...?," recently premiered at the U.S. Comedy Arts Festival in Aspen, Colo. Logue just finished shooting DreamWorks' "Just Like Heaven," directed by Mark Waters and starring Reese Witherspoon and Mark Ruffalo. He most recently was the star of the WB Network series "Grounded for Life."

Fonda's recent films include "The Heart Is Deceitful Above All Things" and "The Laramie Project." He also has been involved in a number of TV projects, including the telefilm "Back When We Were Grownups."

Matt Long To Play Younger Nic Cage 'Ghost Rider'

Matt Long ("Jack & Bobby") is in talks to play a younger version of the title character played by Nicolas Cage in the Marvel Comics adaptation Ghost Rider, according to the Hollywood Reporter. The movie stars Cage as a former motorcycle stuntman named Johnny Blaze who agrees to let his body become host to a vengeful spirit -- becoming a bike-riding demon in the process -- to secure the safety of his true love, to be played by Eva Mendes.

Long would play a young Johnny, who makes the deal with the devil. Also starring are Wes Bentley and Sam Elliott. Mark Steven Johnson is directing and wrote the latest draft of the script.

Scooper 'Speds' checked out two of the Ghost Rider sets in Melbourne and sent us two reports. The Mark Steven Johnson-directed comic book adaptation stars Nicolas Cage and will be distributed by Columbia Pictures:

I went and checked out two sets being used/built for Ghost Rider. The first I checked out was near the corner of Lil' Lonsdale St and Elizabeth st. An alley off Lil' Lonsdale house two Garage/Petrol stations while Lil' Lonsdale St has the rear of the garages which are being used as shop fronts. One of the shop fronts is a TV repair place. I was really impressed at the look of these buildings. The surrounds were burnt out barrels, discarded tyres and so on.

Next stop was the Cemetery in Carlton. There wasn't much to look at in terms of set but there was a big catering/lunch tent and plenty of trucks there including trailers for "Blackheart", "MSJ", "JB Make Up", "Caretaker" and so on. Security were patrolling both sets and were real nice. I asked the security guy at the cemetery when they were filming there next and he said they were at the Docklands studio today (Sunday) and back at the cemetery on Tuesday. So I figure its a night shoot so I'm heading back down tonight. Read More > <http://superherohype.com/news/ghostridernews.php?id=2639>

MOVIE OF THE WEEK

By: Nicole

Wild At Heart

Synopsis:

Young lovers Sailor and Lula take off for New Orleans following Sailor's release from prison, with Lula's hysterical mother, a weary detective and a sinister hit man after them. During their journey, Lula and Sailor relate the events of their lives to date, while encountering a typical gallery of Lynch grotesques. After being stranded in a small town, Sailor agrees to join the loathsome Bobby Peru in a criminal venture.

Written by - Bernard Keane

Review:

In adapting Barry Gifford's colorful novel, David Lynch delivers another jolt of adrenaline to unsuspecting viewers everywhere. WILD AT HEART follows the troubled romance of Sailor (Nicolas Cage) and Lula (Laura Dern), two lovers who struggle to remain together even when fate seems intent on keeping them apart. In this case, fate is Lula's mother, Marietta Fortune (Diane Ladd), a desperate woman who hates Sailor and will do anything to keep him away from her daughter. After Sailor is released from prison for murdering a man--albeit in self-defense--he and Lula embark on a sex-filled, rocking road trip, aware that they are being hunted by one of Marietta's cronies. When they pull off the road in order to hide out in a small trailer park, Sailor befriends Bobby Peru (Willem Dafoe), an incredibly intense war veteran with a rotten set of teeth. Bobby convinces Sailor to help him rob a bank, much to Lula's objections (for she has discovered that she is pregnant). Sailor must decide if he wants to go straight and be there for his child or remain under Bobby's influence and risk returning to jail. Lynch's raucous film contains his trademark visual style, over-the-top dialogue, and pulsating soundtrack, creating another truly distinct picture.

If your N.I.C. subscription ever becomes too heavy to handle or you're going on vacation or moving, you can do two things; have your mail options changed to...

- 1 - "Digest" (messages arrive in batches of 25 or fewer, without attachments)
- 2 - "No mail." With "no mail," you can read messages (and open attachments) directly from the Internet. (This is good if you don't have high-speed access.) You can change your mail options yourself by going to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/nicinfo/>. You will be asked to sign in if you've never done so before. If you can't remember your password, request a change to a new one that you can remember. Once you've signed in, you can also access "Chat" and "Files" and "Photos" and other areas of interest.

Please keep the Nics Information Club discussion list fun for everyone

Keep your comments respectful of Nicolas and his family. After all, he is the reason we exist, we do not condone the spread of hurtful tabloid rumors. We do, however, allow tabloid photos, as they tend to be more accurate. If you have doubts about a tidbit you just found, send it to one of the staff members so that the moderating staff can mull it over before sending it to the group.

Even though his house is on the Hollywood Star Tour, Nicolas's home address is not to be posted to the list in an effort to give him an inkling of privacy.

Please keep your comments respectful of other members. By all means, have serious discussions. Just edit out any personal insults before sending. Remember Nicolas' golden rule: "It's ok to be different". Meeting people online from different cultures, religions, perspectives, and backgrounds makes our lives much richer. We can learn a lot from each other. Remember: "It is nice to be important, but it's more important to be nice."
