NOTE:

The newsletter is very late this week and is again due this Saturday so because of this the newsletter is very small and will have more goodies next time.

Lori who was a past member has been sharing photos of Nic filming The Weather Man, this is what she sent to me..

My cousin, Lindsey, has been in the Chicago area for the past three weeks because of her job. She was able to sit on the set quietly and "lurk" while everyone was doing their thing. These pictures were taken around the 16th of April (I believe).

To see the great pics go to...

Movie Of The Week

[Face/Off] - by Nicole

Synopsis:

Sean Archer, an FBI covert terrorism expert, through advanced plastic surgery, assumes the identity of Castor Troy, his arch-nemesis, a sadistic terrorist. Things get complicated when the terrorist awakens from surgery, faceless, and forces the doctors to attach the FBI agent's face. Both characters then carry out one another's lives in a game of cat-and-mouse, the FBI agent pretends to be the terrorist while trying to locate and dismantle a nuclear weapon, while the terrorist assumes the role of FBI agent and family man.

Review:

Castor Troy has planted a bomb somewhere in LA and only he and his brother, who invented know where it is. Castor is injured and goes into a coma after being persued by Sean Archer into an aircraft hanger and the rest of his gang are captured. The cops try to find out where the bomb is by questioning them all but no one will talk. So some bright spark in the FBI comes up with the idea of transplanting The Cage's face onto Travolta's so that he can go into the prison and get the info from Castor Troy's brother.

It obviously all goes wrong or else there wouldn't be a film. The Cage wakes up from his coma and puts Travolta's face onto his head and goes after him and starts to get revenge on Travolta by living his life for him while Travolta's stuck in prison He does get out of prison obviously which results in two hours of excellent film as they both try to kill each other.

It's a top idea for a film and both leads pull it off perfectly, Travolta was slightly more believable as The Cage than the other way around but they were both good. There was also plenty of over the top action as you would expect from a John Woo film with speedboat chases thrown in so as not to disappoint. There is also a stand-off, a-la Reservoir Dogs that involved about eight people which made me laugh. "Ooohhhh, what a predicament."

It is definitely a film that you can watch multiple times and never get bored because it has so much going on it. And anyway The Cage is in it so it's obviously class!

NIC INFORMATION

If anyone is interested in helping out with the newsletter, calendar, chats, doing research, or just keeping the list in good working order, we would love the help, and your input!! E-mail nicinfo-owner@yahogroups.com

If your N.I.C. subscription ever becomes too heavy to handle or you're going on vacation or moving, you can do two things, have your mail options changed to...

1 - "digest" (messages arrive in batches of 25 or fewer, without attachments)

2 - "no mail." With "no mail," you can read messages (and open attachments) directly from the Internet. (This is good if you don't have high-speed access.) You can change your mail options yourself by going to <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/nicinfo/>. You will be asked to sign in if you've never done so before. If you can't remember your password, request a change to a new one that you can remember. Once you've signed in, you can also access "Chat" and "Files" and "Photos" and other areas of interest.

Please keep the Nics Information Club discussion list fun for everyone

1) Keep your comments respectful of Nicolas and his family. After all, he is the reason we exist, we do not condone the spread of hurtful tabloid rumors. We do, however, allow tabloid photos, as they tend to be more accurate. If you have doubts about a tidbit you just found, send it to one of the staff members so that the moderating staff can mull it over before sending it to the group.

2) Even though his house is on the Hollywood Star Tour, Nicolas's home address is not to be posted to the list in an effort to give him an inkling of privacy.

3) Please keep your comments respectful of other members. By all means, have serious discussions. Just edit out any personal insults before sending. Remember Nicolas' golden rule: "It's ok to be different". Meeting people online from different cultures, religions, perspectives, and backgrounds makes our lives much richer. We can learn a lot from each other. Remember: "It is nice to be important, but it's more important to be nice." (Cage)
